

Thanks to the generosity of the Opera House Fund and White Greer Maggard Orthodontics, your youth group may qualify to receive complimentary tickets to the national touring production:

Annie

The goal of BROADWAY BUDDIES is to introduce the young people in our community to performing arts and the historic Lexington Opera House. This educational outreach program includes a pre-production workshop – including a back-stage tour, production guide, theatre etiquette class and complimentary tickets to the professional touring Broadway production of ANNIE. Thanks to the generosity of our donors, we can also provide transportation cost relief, determined by the number of tickets awarded to your group, for the pre-theatre workshop. Participants are required to attend the workshop on Monday or Tuesday, prior to the weekend performance. See schedule below:

Required:

Pre-Production Workshop: Backstage Tour, Study Guide, and Theatre Etiquette Class:
Monday, October 31st or Tuesday, November 1st.

ALL Broadway Buddies and their chaperones will attend the performance on Thursday, November 3rd at 7:30pm.

Criteria for Qualification:

- Members of your group must be between the ages of 8 to 18 years of age.
- Your organization must provide transportation and one adult chaperone for every 8 youth.
- Copy of IRS tax designation as a 501c3 (not-for-profit) organization Public School applicants may replace the 501 (c)3 verification with a letter of interest on official school letterhead.
- Applications must be received by September 30, 2022

Selected organizations will be notified no later than October 12, 2022 with detailed information and instructions. We hope you are interested in our arts and education outreach program. Apply to be our BROADWAY BUDDIES today! For further information, please phone or email.
