

Thanks to the generosity of the Opera House Fund, White Greer Maggard Orthodontics and Broadway Live Subscribers, your Youth Group may qualify to receive complimentary tickets to the national touring production:

Rogers & Hammerstein's

The King and I

Sunday, April 28th at 6:30pm

The goal of BROADWAY BUDDIES is to introduce the young people in our community to performing arts and the historic Lexington Opera House. This educational outreach program includes a pre-production back-stage tour, study guide, theatre etiquette class and complimentary tickets to the professional touring Broadway production of THE KING AND I. Participants are required to attend the class on Tuesday, prior to the performance on Sunday. See schedule below.

Tues, April 23, 2019 (6:00-7:30pm): Backstage Tour, Study Guide, Theatre Etiquette Class (Required)

Sun, April 28, 2019 (6:30–9:30pm): The King and I

Criteria for qualification:

- Members of your group must be between the ages of 10 to 18 years of age
- Your organization must provide transportation and one adult chaperone for every 8 youth
- Copy of IRS tax designation as a 501c3 (not-for-profit) organization
- Applications must be received by March 1, 2019

Selected organizations will be notified by March 15, 2019 with detailed information and instructions. We hope you are interested in our arts and education outreach program. Apply to be our BROADWAY BUDDIES today! For further information, please phone or email.
